

Monaghan Group: Customized Accounting Solutions for Public Companies

Style.

As a publicly-held company, your business requires complex, voluminous reporting and finely-managed accounting procedures. Our professional accountants know the rules and have implemented policies and strategies for companies like yours. Whether you are experiencing downturn or growth, evolution of leadership or a change in systems, or you are simply coming up on a stressful deadline, Monaghan Group can help get you through. We approach every situation with the judgment and experience required to deliver a credible resolution.

At Monaghan Group we do not answer yes or no.
We answer this is how.

Substance.

Monaghan Group CPAs are experienced CFOs, Controllers, and SEC Reporting Managers with 10-30 years of experience and judgment. We understand how business works and know when to get involved and where to stay out of the way. Depending on the situation, our CPAs will work directly with you or your team to complete the project on time and with integrity.

For more than a dozen years, Monaghan Group has provided customized accounting solutions to public companies in times of change and can support your strategic and tactical accounting needs through:

Interim Positions

Defined Projects

Solutions for all Stages

Monaghan Group has provided accounting services for businesses at every stage of the public company lifeline. From the newly-public pharmaceutical company Cornerstone Therapeutics, Inc. to 150-year old international glass and fiber optics giant Corning Incorporated, our clients have counted on Monaghan Group CPAs for thoughtful, professional solutions to critical accounting needs.

Support.

At Monaghan Group, we match our client's specific accounting demands with the distinct skills of our CPAs to create optimal solutions. And while each client experience is unique, we work with public companies in two main ways:

Interim Positions

We have high-level, experienced accounting professionals ready to serve in interim roles, helping you manage critical vacancies for any number of reasons. With strong backgrounds in public accounting and years of practical experience, our CPAs are ready to support your team with strategy and implementation as dictated by your needs. With Monaghan Group on board, you can be certain critical tasks are completed to deadline and with credibility.

We work with our clients to provide professional support for critical roles and can help your organization with interim needs, including:

- SEC Reporting Manager
- Controller
- Divisional Controller
- Senior Accounting Manager
- Financial Analyst

Defined Projects

Working much like a SWAT team, we will come in, assess the situation, apply our experience, deliver the results, and get out of your way. From research to writing, strategic planning to tactical support, Monaghan Group CPAs stand ready to help your company through challenging times.

Our professional accountants can lead your project team or rely on ours to successfully execute:

- SEC Quarterly and Annual Reporting
- Position Papers
- External or Internal Audit Process
- Contract and Procedure Reviews
- Mergers and Acquisition
- Consolidation and Equity
- Foreign Currency Complexities
- Year-end Close
- Technical Research and Resolutions
 - Segment Reporting
 - Revenue Recognition
 - Stock Options

Contact your City Leader or visit us online to learn how Monaghan Group can help your organization navigate a time of change. www.monaghangrp.com

Charlotte City Leader

Nancy Brown
704-334-6776 x11
nbrown@monaghangrp.com

Triad City Leader

Elizabeth Douglas
336-725-5822
edouglas@monaghangrp.com

Triangle City Leader

Debbie Fox
919-676-9868
dfox@monaghangrp.com

